

ACADEMIC WRITING BOOTCAMP

For early-career scientists

Are you making less progress on your manuscript, thesis or grant proposal than you would like?

Come join a Thoughtful Stories writing bootcamp!

During these one-day sessions, we will set clear goals on which you will work during several focused writing blocks. At the end of the day, we will evaluate and celebrate your progress.

Are you ready to train your academic writing muscle? Sign up via email (renee@thoughtfulstories.nl) or Signal (ThoughtfulStories.01).

Hi!

I'm Renée Verdiesen and have a lot of academic writing experience, both as PhD and postdoc, and as a teacher at Utrecht University.

I will help you get (back) into that writing mindset and am only one worried glance away if you get stuck content-wise.

"No matter how stuck you are, you will start writing again."
